Your best guide for buying or selling a business isn't words on paper - it's the competent presence of a business broker. A business broker provides vital services for both buyers and sellers and acts as the "glue" for holding together the pieces of the business sale process.

Selling in the future

If you want to sell for maximum profit you will need to learn about the process and begin planning an exit strategy now.

What is your business really worth? W. Edward Deming said, "In God We Trust, everybody else bring data."

Is it the right time to sell? Selling for maximum profit is a process. Is your business ready to be sold? Would it be better to wait, or prepare more?
